

Political Participation

DT Midstream is committed to being a responsible corporate citizen and to complying with all applicable laws. As an energy company, we are affected each day by the decisions of federal, state and local officials. DT Midstream is an active participant in the political process and encourages its employees to participate in the process.

DT Midstream supports public policies that promote its commitment to sustainable, reliable, affordable and safe energy. DT Midstream's decisions on corporate and Political Action Committee contributions, and support for trade and business associations, recognizes these policy positions and a wide range of other criteria, including policies that help our local communities prosper and flourish while promoting opportunity for all in an open and just society.
