

DT Midstream Political Engagement Policy

Revision 1
May 15, 2023

1. Applicability

This Policy applies to all employees and the Board of Directors of DT Midstream (the Company). This Policy also applies to contract personnel (defined as contractors, vendors, consultants, or any others performing work on behalf of the Company).¹

2. Policy

A. General

Lobbying elected officials and/or making political contributions, using an employee sponsored political action committee, to candidates who are aligned with the Company's principles, are political engagement strategies the Company uses to help reduce political risk and maintain a business-friendly environment.

B. Contributions

1. The DT Midstream PAC (PAC) is bi-partisan and maintains a goal of providing contributions based on issues important to the Company's stakeholders regardless of party affiliation. The PAC does not contribute to presidential campaigns, super PACs, or independent expenditure committees.
2. The Company's government affairs team is responsible to evaluate a candidate's eligibility for receiving a political contribution based, in part, on the criteria below. Criteria used to evaluate candidates, committees, and national parties include, but are not limited, to the following:
 - a. views on issues of importance to the Company
 - b. service on a committee with jurisdiction over key policy issues
 - c. elected leadership position
 - d. representation of system facilities and/or large employee bases
 - e. demonstrated commitment to the values of the Company
3. No single issue or criteria category determines whether a candidate does or does not receive a contribution. The Company may elect to withhold or suspend contributions at any time if a candidate's public statements, behavior, integrity, and or character are incongruent with the Company's values or ethos.

¹ The applicability of these policy requirements to contractors, vendors, consultants, service providers, or any others performing work on behalf of DT Midstream should not be interpreted or construed to create or establish an employment relationship between DT Midstream or any DT Midstream subsidiary and its contractors, vendors, consultants, service providers, or their employees or agents.

C. PAC Participation

All employees of the Company who are U.S. citizens may join and contribute to the PAC. Employee participation in the PAC is strictly voluntary. The Company will not require or coerce employees to make contributions to the PAC or, disadvantage or favour any employee based on their PAC membership or contribution status.

D. Prohibited Actions

1. Employees or other applicable persons may not engage in lobbying activity or donate, provide, lend, or otherwise commit or contribute any Company resource, asset, including professional time, material, in-kind service, or anything of value to any political candidate, campaign, elected official, ballot initiative or lobbyable government official on behalf of the Company without the explicit permission of the Company's Director of Government Affairs or the Company's General Counsel.
2. Contractors, vendors, consultants, or any others performing work on behalf of the Company shall not lobby, donate, provide, lend, or otherwise commit or contribute any resource, asset, including professional time, material, in-kind service or anything of value on behalf of, or as a proxy for, the Company to any political candidate, campaign, elected official, ballot initiative or lobbyable government official without the explicit permission of the Company's Director of Government Affairs or the Company's General Counsel.

E. Public Disclosure

The Company will conduct its political giving and political engagement in compliance with all applicable federal, state, and local laws. The Company shall comply with all public disclosure and reporting requirements associated with political giving.
